Trade Deficit

1809. SHRI GEULAM RASOOL MATTO: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be leased to state:

(a) what was the trade deficit during the years 1985-86 and 1986-87; and

(b) what is the. estimated trade deficit for the ye; r 1987-88 and what concrete steps h ive been taken by the Central Government to narrow down the trade leficit?

THE MINTSTE I OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. D\S MUNSHI): (a) According to the provisional figures, India's trade deficit during 1986-87 was Rs. 751.51 crores as compared to the provisional trade deficit of Rs. 7950.91 .crores during 1985-86. It may be mentioned that the trade deficit during 1985-86 as per the revised figures works out to Rs. 8754.00 crores.

(b) It is difficult to estimate precisely the trade deficit for 1987-88 at this stage. A series of initiatives have been taken by the Government to promote exports. These are designed to generate surpluses for exports to induce the production of goods contemporary in technology and competitive in prices and to make 'the exports profitable. Simultaneously the Government hag also initiated a series of steps to promote efficient import substitution, particularly in the sphere of bulk import.

Opening of Regional Passport Office* in Andhra Pradesh

1810. SHRI TALARI MANOHAR: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to open Regional Passport Offices in Andhra Pradesh; and

(b) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH); (a) No, Sir. There is no proposal under consideration to open additional Regional Passport Offices in Andhra Pradesh apart from the existing Regional Passport Office in Hyderabad.

(b) For the past few years, the Government has been following the principle of having one Passport Office in each State unless the number of passport applications from that State is too small which would not justify expenditure on opening a Passport Office in that State.
